

Sarah Dusseault <sarah.dusseault@lacity.org>

OLD ESTATE's TENNIS COURT

Sarah Dusseault <sarah.dusseault@lacity.org>

Thu, Jun 2, 2016 at 2:19 PM

To: Pamela

No problem.

The funds will only be returned upon proof of receipt of payments he made to the construction and yes that's through FORC but the city will be obligated to make him whole for anything he expended.

The figures in the paper are not confirmed. Rec and Parka has to go over the figures.

Sarah Dusseault
Chief of Staff
Councilmember David E. Ryu
213 473 7004
Sent from my iPhone

> On Jun 2, 2016, at 1:37 PM, Pamela wrote:
>
> Dear Sarah,
>
> I owe an apology, of sorts.
>
> After seeing the image in the Beverly Press today, I realize the image I sent earlier could have been misleading.
>
> However, I still believe the wall was NOT in dire need of repair, and that demolition of the old estate's court was completely unnecessary, and, to my thinking, a punishable act of vandalism.
>
> If any necessary repairs were identified by a city employee, the solution proposed would have likely cost a fraction of the $210,000 estimate that is now being publicized.
>
> On a separate point, the City never received a penny from the donor so it is unclear why the City is planning to return any funds to him.
>
>
> Sincerely,
>
> Pam
>
>> On Jun 2, 2016, at 11:04 AM, Pamela wrote:
>>
>>
>>
>> <IMG_0412.JPG>
>>
>> Dear Sarah,
>>
>> This is a photo of what the old tennis court "retaining wall" looked like just before it was demolished.
>>
>> If you find another photo that indicates how it was failing, I'd be interested to see it.
>>
>> Best,
>>
>> Pam

